'Complete Agreement' — F.D.R.

Anglo-American Talks Concluded

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt announced this afternoon that the war conference of the British-United States staffs has ended in "complete agreement on future operations in all theatres of the war."

The President issued a one-sentence statement on the conclusion of the momentous parleys which began here May 11 when Prime Minister Churchill arrived from Britain for talks with Mr. Roosevelt, accompanied by his top military, naval and air advisers.

The statement: "The conference of the combined staffs in Washington has ended in complete agreement on future operations in all theatres of the war."
Originally Mr. Churchill and the President had planned a joint statement, but the White House said they had agreed today to change that arrangement and let Mr. Roosevelt speak alone.

His brief declaration gave no tip on what decisions were reached or where or when the next heavy blows might be delivered.
If there was any clue at all to what the British and U.S. generals and the Prime Minister and President had in mind it could be found only in remarks of the Prime Minister at a press conference Tuesday.

He spoke then on continuing the aerial pounding against the foe, but he declared at the same time this did not mean that other methods of forcing them to yield on terms of unconditional surrender would be side-tracked.

He also pointed out the difficulty of those who live alone. If a person wants even one lamb chop he must surrender a meat coupon; this means meat can only be bought twice a week by people in this category.

Butchers Lack Full Information On Rationing

As meat rationing went into force today some butchers in Victoria said they are hampered by not having received the official chart on meat-cutting. The demonstration which will standardize "breaks" of meat has been delayed due to the non-arrival of the meat-cutting inspector.

Most butcher stores reported extremely busy days Tuesday and Wednesday as housewives bought roasts and steaks for the week-end in advance of today's rationing.

There are many minor difficulties to be ironed out, one meat dealer said, citing the fact that as yet no allowance has been made for seasonal changes. He said a side of beef was priced according to popularity and demand. The natural tendency in summer is to lower the cost of pot roasts and stewing beef, and raise the cost of steaks. This is not true all over Canada, he said, as different sections of the country, according to weather, get higher prices for pot roasts than for steaks.

"In Victoria, however," housewives will not want to use three or four coupons for a pot roast, and we anticipate a little difficulty with the surplus," he said.
Another problem encountered is serving outside customers who have standing orders at mail order departments.

"Many of them ordered Wednesday, and today we must collect the ration coupons for yesterday's meat," a butcher explained.

Another complication is the effect on heavy beef from 600 to 650 pounds, especially those cuts with high fat content.

DEMAND LEAN BEEF

"Now, more than ever," one meat dealer said, "customers will demand lean beef. Right now we have 25 or 30 cuts of prime ribs with big joints and fatty fat. Some of them you can't cut smaller than four or five pounds and the housewife is hesitant about using all her coupons at once."

He also pointed out the difficulty of those who live alone. If a person wants even one lamb chop he must surrender a meat coupon; this means meat can only be bought twice a week by people in this category.

Rubber Strikers Return to Plants On F.D.R.'s Order

AKRON, O. (AP)—C.I.O. unionists ended strikes at three major Akron rubber companies today, complying with the noon deadline set in a Presidential ultimatum concerning a five-day production stoppage that had thrown more than 50,000 into idleness.

A small shift returned to war jobs at the B. F. Goodrich Company just as the deadline approached after United Rubber Workers' unionists there had decided to observe the commander-in-chief's order.

The back-to-work movement had started earlier at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, where employees straggled into the plants throughout the morning and six hours after the first men had reported on the 6 a.m. shift, Firestone guards estimated 50 per cent of the force was on the job.

A Goodyear spokesman declared it would take "all day and a good part of tomorrow to balance up our production," adding that it was necessary to start from scratch after such a shutdown.

FULL STAFF

Only the General Tire and Rubber Company reported a full working force on the job.

Virtually no employees entered the gates at Goodrich and United Rubber Workers' Union members there said their president, George H. Bass, had called on them to meet at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.—the first meeting being scheduled two hours before expiration of President Roosevelt's deadline. Workers were instructed not to remain away from jobs just to attend the sessions.

Allies Not Diverted From Bombing Plans

LONDON (CP)—Clement Attlee, deputy Prime Minister, told the House of Commons today that no attempts by neutral countries would divert the United Nations from their considered plans to bomb Germany.

Apparently referring to recent Spanish moves condemning bombings and urging their outlawing by both sides, Mr. Attlee said:
"The destruction of the Axis war potential by air bombing is a vital and indeed a major feature of our offensive and neither the enemy nor anyone else will divert us from it. Nor shall we relax our vigorous prosecution of the war by this and other legitimate methods until the complete victory of the Allied nations is achieved."

When R. R. Stokes, Labor, referred to "indiscriminate bombing of civilian centres as both morally wrong and strategic lunacy," Mr. Attlee replied: "There is no indiscriminate bombing. Bombing is on those targets which are most effective from the military point of view."

De Witt Removal Branded Nonsense

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson said today that Lt. Gen. John L. de Witt has a "fine and successful record as commander of the 4th Army, particularly in the handling of the very difficult problem of evacuation of Japanese from the coastal areas."
His statement was in reply to a press conference inquiry about a statement by Rep. Welch (Rep. Calif.), who said in a newspaper interview that he understood De Witt would be replaced because of differences with war department officials over the question of treatment of Japanese.
"Such a story," Stimson said, "in that respect, is nonsense."

Davies Carries Stalin's Letter To Roosevelt

MOSCOW (AP)—Joseph E. Davies, President Roosevelt's special envoy, said tonight that Premier Stalin, in their final meeting, "gave every indication he was entirely in accord with the contents of the President's letter," brought here by the American.

He said he based his statement on the cordial atmosphere with which he was received at the Kremlin, where Wednesday night he received a written and sealed reply from Stalin to President Roosevelt's secret letter.

The President's emissary said he did not know the contents of Stalin's message and that it was solely for Mr. Roosevelt.

Mr. Davies said he would leave directly for the United States.

Mr. Davies conferred with Stalin again Wednesday night, at the Kremlin, in the presence of Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov. A Tass announcement of the meeting gave no details. A picture of Stalin, Davies and Molotov at the Kremlin was published on the front page in a four-column space today by Izvestia, government newspaper. Observers agreed that all appeared delighted about something, but there was no explanation of what that something was.

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—Another escort vessel for Canada's naval service was launched at the Port Arthur Shipbuilding Company Limited yard today.
There was no ceremony, the christening being planned for later, but the workmen who built her cheered as the trim ship took to the water.

Soviet Pilots Bag 67 Enemy Planes With Loss Of 20

LONDON (AP)—Attacking nearly 100,000 strong, Red Army infantry and tankmen have forced the Germans to fall back from a front-line sector of the Kuban bridgehead several miles long and two kilometers (1.24 miles) deep, D.N.B., the German news agency, announced today in a dispatch broadcast by the Berlin radio.

The agency said Nazi defences all along the Delta stronghold had been battered. The broadcast was recorded by the Associated Press.

The attacking force, which struck after thunderous artillery preparation, was reported made up of six Soviet rifle divisions and three tank regiments.

D.N.B. said the main attack was delivered "against German positions... between Moldavanskoje and Kijevskaje, in the area of Krymskaya," which lies 20 miles above the port of Novorossisk. Other attacks were reported pressed to the south in the Novorossisk sector, and to the north, along the banks of the Kuban.

Both Russian and German reports had indicated a violent upsurge in the land and air battle for the Kuban River zone held by the Germans from Novorossisk northward to Temryuk, on the Azov Sea.

The Russians announced, in their midnight communique that they had smashed back two counterattacking German battalions, totaling about 1,600 men, and a special broadcast from Moscow later reported 67 German planes shot down in the area northeast of Novorossisk, with a loss of 20 Soviet planes.

The German radio claimed 400 Russians had been killed and 600 captured in fighting near Temryuk, but acknowledged the Russians had regrouped their forces and that heavier fighting was in prospect.

Nazis Admit Dent In Velikie Luki Line

The Germans, too, issued reports that other sectors of the long Russian front had come alive, with heavy Russian attacks that dented the German lines southwest of Velikie Luki and large-scale Soviet scouting activity south of Staraya Russa.

The Germans said their troops were forced to withdraw temporarily from the main defence line before Velikie Luki, but that a counterattack re-established the position. Velikie Luki is 270 miles west of Moscow and 90 miles from the Latvian border.

The Germans also said a Soviet scouting party had invaded their lines south of Staraya Russa before being repulsed. Staraya Russa is 285 miles northwest of Moscow and 140 miles south and slightly east of Leningrad.

The German losses in the night's fighting were heaviest on the Leningrad front and west of Rostov, with about 200 Germans wiped out by snipers and Red Army regulars in the Leningrad sector, the Russians said.

MOSCOW (AP)—As Russia acclaimed Leningrad today on the 240th anniversary of its founding, but the city's inhabitants were too busy to celebrate. They were mounting guard against a possible fresh German thrust.

Today's WAR NEWS Analysis

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The fierce defence being made by the Japanese in the face of the determined attack on their positions among the volcanic crags of Attu provides one of the outstanding lessons of the protracted battle on that small, fog-shrouded Aleutian island.

It's a harsh reminder of what the Allies are up against in their task of smashing the Japanese nation as a whole.

Of course this isn't the first time by any means that the Japanese have exhibited such tenacity. More than once in this war we've seen them battle until the last man was dead.

ANTIQUATED CODE

Frequently they make suicidal stands which serve no useful purpose, merely because the old Shogun code says a soldier is dishonored if he surrenders under any circumstances. In theory the man who gives himself up becomes a pariah and is an exile from his motherland.

Still, this Japanese characteristic has been brought closer to home in the hand-to-hand conflict on the queer little American possession.

There could be no more pointed warning of the need of the utmost speed in cleaning up Hitler so the entire Allied striking power can be turned against the Nipponese at the earliest possible moment. The enormous force which the United Nations will be able to mass, when once the Axis is beaten, will do the job, but it becomes harder with each passing day allowed the Japanese to consolidate their positions.

CIVILIAN RESPONSIBILITY

The burden of speeding up rests in large degree on intensification of civilian effort. If we provide the resources, the fighting services will do the rest. There can be no lag in production or conservation.

The Nipponese are pretty well established in their main conquests, and it's going to take a lot to shift them. Their greatest strength outside of the Japanese mainland is in China and Manchuria. A Chinese commentator in Chungking recently estimated the Japanese forces in his country at 30½ divisions—say about 458,000 men. The Japanese have been moving troops from Manchuria, but there may be another 500,000 or more there—watching Russia but available for service in China—and there are others in Korea.

The new Japanese offensive along the Yangtze River towards Chungking has raised a fresh problem for Chinese defence. This drive undoubtedly is aimed at depriving Gen. Chiang Kai-shek of provinces which provide about his last remaining resources. It may even envisage capture of Chungking itself.

ALL CHINA THREATENED

Should such a program be achieved it probably would give the Japanese control of all China. The Allies would have to start from scratch to fight their way out to the continent without the help of the Chinese army.

This would be a task which might take years, but for one thing. That is air power.

AIR BLOWS AND BLOCKADE

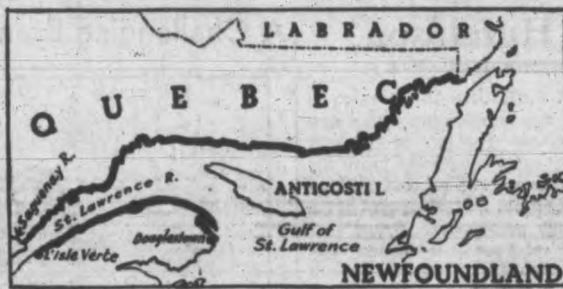

The farther we go the more certain it seems that air power is going to provide the solution of the Japanese problem. Of course, all the other fighting services will be involved in a big way, but in trying to look ahead it would appear there is only one method to wind up the war with Japan in our time.

That is by bombing and blockading the Japanese mainland into submission. This presupposes that air bases will be available to the Allies. It also presupposes that the Japanese armies of occupation in foreign territory would capitulate when the homeland had been pounded into impotence—though one admits there might be the bare possibility of Japanese generals and their armies setting up a new regime on the continent and fighting it out.

U.S. Corsair Plane Superior to Jap Zero

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States navy's Corsair fighter plane, first such craft in the service to have a 2,000 horsepower engine, was officially described here Wednesday for the first time as decidedly superior to all models of the Japanese Zero, even in manoeuvrability.

United States pilots have reported that the Corsair has the Zero licked in every phase of combat performance; interception, manoeuvrability, climb, speed, fire power and armor.

DIMOUT ALONG ST. LAWRENCE—As a defence against U-boats, the federal government has ordered a dimout down the St. Lawrence River. It will extend from the mouth of the Saguenay River, 115 miles below Quebec City, to beyond the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The dimout will be similar to that in effect in Victoria.

M.P. Says Call-Ups Based On Former Voluntary Recruiting

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. R. B. Hanson, Prog. Con., York-Sunbury, N.B., said in the House of Commons Wednesday he had been "shocked" to find compulsory military training call-ups were made on the basis of available manpower.

Defence Minister Ralston said he thought Mr. Hanson was wrong but the New Brunswick former house leader of the opposition insisted his information was correct.

"I made inquiry here as to the basis of the allocation of the quotas from each military district and to my surprise I found that the allocation was based, not on manpower, but on the voluntary enlistments in those districts," said Mr. Hanson.

"That is to say: If New Brunswick and Nova Scotia had a record of 35 and 37 per cent, and an adjoining district had a record of 10 or 13 per cent, Nova Scotia or New Brunswick was called upon to contribute 2½ times as many men under the call than the district alongside whose voluntary contributions were considerably less."

J. G. Diefenbaker, Prog. Con., Lake Centre, Saskatchewan, said there was no equality in operation of the call-up. Halifax military district had "a remarkable record" of voluntary enlistments—39.8 per cent of the male population of 19 to 45 years available at the beginning of the war. In spite of this heavy voluntary enlistment, 10.54 per cent of the remaining available manpower was called under the National Resources Mobilization Act. Quebec military district had an enlistment record of 9.9 per cent, and only 4.59 per cent were called under the N.R.M.A.

Col. Ralston said national war services and afterwards the Labor Department decided what man should be requisitioned.

Meanwhile, Mr. Diefenbaker said, there are 91,800 Canadian men in the United States between 18 and 38 who are not U.S. citizens and have given no indication they will accept American citizenship.

Of these Canadians only 801 had joined the Canadian army up to mid-January. He asked what was being done to obtain these men for service in the Canadian forces.

About 5,000 Canadians were serving in the United States forces. Defence Minister Ralston gave no immediate answer.

Reward for Service, N.C.O.'s Commissioned

OTTAWA (CP)—Air Force headquarters announces that more than 25 members of R.C.A.F. aircrew serving overseas, all graduates of the Commonwealth Air Training Plan, have been commissioned in the field for efficiency, meritorious service and the display of qualities of leadership.

Those commissioned include the following British Columbians: Sgt. John Rowan Walker, F.R.C., Sgt. Douglas Coupar Goudie, Vancouver; F.R.C. Sgt. Willis Edward Adams, New Westminster; Sgt. Francis A. Doherty, Chilliwack; F.R.C. Sgt. Jack Arthur Gibbs, Penticton; F.R.C. Sgt. Wallace Hetherington, Rolla, Hedley; F.R.C. Sgt. Trevor Earl Schubert, Armstrong.

Ottawa to Protect Soldiers' Property During Service

OTTAWA (CP)—Measures to protect service personnel from foreclosures, eviction and seizures while they are absent on the King's business are being considered, Defence Minister Ralston told the House of Commons Wednesday afternoon.

But, he said, the government was not prompted to do this by any action taken at the Conservative convention in Winnipeg last December, when Hon. R. B. Hanson, Prog. Con., York-Sunbury, N.B., suggested this was the case.

The minister's announcement was made at the end of an afternoon of debate on a suggestion by Howard Green, Prog. Con., Vancouver South, that some such action be taken.

The suggestion was made during consideration of the $3,890,000,000 war appropriation for the current fiscal year.

WINS APPROVAL

Request for government legislation to protect soldiers from any losses of property through their service in the armed forces won general approval. The proposal was on the lines of the so-called "Sparkman" Act in the United States.

Col. Ralston said that in adopting the suggestion there was no question but that it would mean invasion of the field of jurisdiction held exclusively by the provinces, and it was a matter on which the provinces should be consulted.

A number of the provincial legislatures had adopted legislation of this type, but the legislation was not uniform.

Writer Says Russia Ignored Warnings Of Pending Blow

NEW YORK (CP)—It was common knowledge around the world in June, 1941, that Hitler was preparing to invade Russia. Yet many high officers of the Red Army were on vacation. The Russian leaders generally and the Russian people were entirely unprepared for the impending German blow.

Henry C. Cassidy, the Associated Press staff man, heard the news by radio and in his book on the Russian war, published Wednesday, "Moscow Dateline," he stresses this element of surprise which was so strongly on the German side.

Cassidy's account makes it plain that Stalin had faith to the very end in his policy of appeasing Germany in order to gain time; faith enough in prolonged appeasement that he ignored the warning of Prime Minister Churchill, given a month before Germany struck.

Of the high British and U.S. personages who have gone to Moscow to see Stalin, Cassidy selects Anthony Eden and Wendell L. Willkie as the most successful in gaining Russian confidence. Mr. Churchill, he says, appeared irritable.

Cassidy's story of the Prime Minister coming to his farewell state dinner at the Kremlin zipper-suited and tieless is a highlight of the book.

Referring to Mr. Churchill's dress, Cassidy says "it may have been the same costume which was admired in Washington, but not in Moscow. It was no success, particularly at a Kremlin dinner which the Russians, so informal on some occasions but so formal on others, consider as a great state occasion."

Nevertheless, Cassidy considers the Churchill-Stalin meetings to have been successful.

Sugar For Canning

NEARLY 9,000,000 CANADIANS HAVE asked for 210,000,000 pounds of sugar for canning fruit this year. So said Mr. E. W. Rodomar, assistant-deputy-administrator of Consumer Rationing for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, who told the convention of mayors in session at Ottawa yesterday that it had been expected only some 40 or 50 per cent of the population would ask for special amounts for this purpose. On that account, and presumably by striking an average, 100,000,000 pounds had been set as the figure that would fill the bill—especially in view of the fact that 80,000,000 pounds was the normal yearly requirement for canning. As if by way of showing the heads of civic governments how near that figure should come to the mark, he said his department had one application from a family of four in Alberta for 700 pounds of sugar, and another from the same province for 1,500 pounds to meet the needs of 1943 for a family of six. These assuredly were exceptional cases and could be dealt with accordingly.

What the Consumer Rationing branch seems to have overlooked, however, is the important fact that the amount of sugar used in years gone by, or even last year, could not by any stretch of the imagination be regarded as a yardstick for the requirements of 1943. Up till a few months ago, for example, the housewife could buy practically all the canned fruit she required—even to the point of building up large reserves without any threat of punishment for hoarding. On top of this and the changed condition which now exists is the important consideration that for years past a great deal of fruit all over the country has rotted for the reason that there was neither the desire nor the economic necessity for exerting special efforts to prevent such wastage on any count. In other words, by setting of an arbitrary amount of 100,000,000 pounds, without due thought for all these new factors, the department involved must not be surprised if it is charged with an unintelligent approach to the problem.

If the sugar is not available in something like the quantity asked for or required—and the department represented by Mr. Rodomar implies that the volume of applications and the amount demanded have surprised it—that is another matter altogether. But it must be remembered that the injunction to the people of the Dominion to can all they possibly could this year came from official sources at Ottawa. Under the circumstances, therefore, the question of available supply should now be considered in the light of the unexpected demand.

Joseph Gordon Coates

NEW ZEALAND'S COALITION GOVERNMENT has suffered a serious loss in the sudden death at his desk today of Rt. Hon. J. G. Coates, a member of the Dominion's war cabinet, since it was formed in 1940, and as Minister for the Armed Forces and War Co-ordination. A member of the House of Representatives for the constituency of Kaipara continuously since 1911, a veteran of the first Great War in which he served with the New Zealanders for two years in France—rising to the rank of major and winning the Military Cross, and bar—, and Prime Minister from 1925 to 1928, the late Mr. Coates had established himself as one of the ablest and most versatile public servants of his native land. Apart from the important position he held at the time of his death, he had previously carried the portfolios of Minister of Justice, Postmaster-General and Minister of Telegraphs, Minister of Public Works, Minister of Railways, Minister of Native Affairs, Minister of External Affairs, Minister of Employment and Transport—and became Leader of the Opposition from 1928 to 1931 after Labor had triumphed at the polls.

Small wonder that New Zealand is one of the most progressive self-governing countries in the world when it has men of the calibre of Mr. Coates from whom to choose its ministers. To all the Empire statesmen of the last two decades he had become well known for his sound judgment and his high administrative attainments. But it was particularly in the vitally important department of national affairs of which he assumed the direction in 1940 that he found a unique outlet for the application of his practical experience as a soldier and a thorough knowledge of a soldier's mental processes. His unbroken representation of his constituency of Kaipara for more than 30 years is, however, perhaps the most eloquent tribute that could be paid to his outstanding ability and sterling integrity.

Serious Waste If True

ONE PART OF YESTERDAY'S OFFICIAL communiqué from Berlin, especially that reporting some damage to civilian property and injuries to a few of the inhabitants of Düsseldorf, should entitle one of the Herr Doktor Goebbels' assistants to a leather medal. It is the solemn intimation to the benumbed people of the Reich that the Luftwaffe, in reprisal for the latest R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. "saturation" attacks on Rhineland communities, had dropped "heavy-calibre bombs on Brighton harbor."

Many Germans and other continental Europeans know Brighton almost as well as they know the popular watering places and spas of the Reich. To be sure, this popular peacetime south coast resort has a harbor of sorts. It is used to serve the purpose of small pleasure steamers and, of course, will again. And what price the old Brighton Belle of hallowed memory? She went down, if our memory serves us correctly, in the Dunkerque evacuation. But if the Nazi propaganda factory expects any considerable number of Hitler's regimented dupes to be fooled by the announcement of heavy-calibre bombs being dropped on Brighton harbor, it must also expect them to reply with a German version of "tell it to the marines."

Marshal Stalin's Reply

SO FAR THE WORLD HAS NOT BEEN permitted to learn—and quite rightly—what Mr. Roosevelt said to Marshal Stalin in the secret letter which former ambassador Joseph E. Davies delivered in Moscow last week. Nor will the written reply which the Russian Premier has now handed to the President's special envoy see the light of day until the chief executive at Washington breaks the seals. It is probable, however, that public curiosity will soon be satisfied. Mr. Davies announced in Moscow this morning that he was leaving directly for the United States.

The very nature of the method adopted for the exchange of these communications between the political heads of the two great republics has stirred up an enormous amount of speculation throughout the world—and particularly in that part of it over which the flag of totalitarianism flies. In view of the fact that Mr. Stalin was too busy directing the important and necessary job of killing Germans on the eastern front it was not possible for him to be present in person at the memorable conference at Casablanca last January. But day-to-day advices from the headquarters of the Prime Minister and the President kept him informed of all problems discussed and decisions reached. Similar remarks, of course, apply to the other member of the United Nations "big four"—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Whether Mr. Roosevelt's secret missive to Mr. Stalin was an invitation to the chief of the Soviet Union to attend a meeting to supplement the consultation still proceeding in Washington between Mr. Churchill and the President, or whether the letter Mr. Davies delivered to the Marshal in the Kremlin was a detailed blueprint of further anti-Axis plans or proposals for active postwar collaboration, must remain in the realm of conjecture until the time is considered opportune to disclose the contents of both documents. We may be sure in the meantime, however, that the technique employed in the circumstances was not calculated to improve the peace of mind of the Axis triumvirate.

Where is the Luftwaffe?

WELL QUALIFIED EXPERTS ARGUE that air superiority of six to one must be regarded as a prerequisite to a successful invasion of continental Europe. Some believe the United Nations are rapidly approaching this ratio. They base their contention on the fact that the Luftwaffe did not give—and was actually not able to give—Axis armies the support justified by the presence in Tunisia of between 300,000 and 400,000 men. And if enemy radio reports of the assembling and sailing of huge Allied troop and supply convoys are true—such are not confirmed either by London or Washington—how is it that neither the German nor the Italian air force seems able to do anything about them?

On the other hand, however, the Russians insist that the Germans are holding a great air force in reserve, and that the ground and air strength which Hitler threw at the armies of the Soviet Union last summer was inferior to the force he is gathering for the campaign which Mr. Churchill, in his address to the United States Congress last week, said the Nazi high command appeared to be preparing. While it is useless to speculate on the present status of the Luftwaffe, either as to quantity or quality, the fact remains that General Jurgens von Arnim's air support was literally blasted from the Tunisian skies. Yet Hitler and Mussolini had boasted that "coffin corner" would be able to hold out almost indefinitely.

New Law Required

PRESUMABLY THE AXIS WILL CALL soon for amendment to the laws of war so as to ban further exploits like that of American Lieut. Frank L. Dunn of San Antonio, Texas. This ambitious young fellow was looking for aerial pictures when a flight of Axis planes came in to land at a field near Cagliari, Sardinia. The sly cuss circled with the enemy, flew low enough to get his shot of an Italian cruiser in the harbor, and was off before anti-aircraft gunners or Axis fliers noticed the interloper in their midst.

When people say "the enemy," they mean Germans or Japs, depending on which coast they live near.

All serviceable tires are now being requisitioned in the United Kingdom from laid-up cars. In Canada there must be an untouched reserve of thousands of tires on laid-up cars. Owners of such cars are warned by the Ottawa Citizen that before another year these tires seem likely to be needed for vehicles on essential service.

RETURN TO DEMOCRACY

WHENEVER I RETURN to my cabin in the bush I find myself filled with a new faith in democracy. For the records kept faithfully in my cabin completely prove the wisdom of the democratic process.

In such a place old magazines and newspapers invariably accumulate. By an evening wood fire (of your own cutting) it is always a kind of melancholy pleasure to look over these records and see how totally wrong they always were in their predictions. But note how right the plain people who live in the wilderness have always been.

The old storekeeper in these parts, whom I take to be a pattern of our democracy and the apotheosis of our system of free government, has never agreed with the experts, whose opinions are enshrined in the old magazines. I remember coming back from Washington in July, 1940, and the storekeeper told me that it might take a couple of years but we would certainly win the war. I did not tell him that some of the most competent experts in the United States had just assured me that the war was completely lost and Britain's surrender only a matter of days or, at most, of weeks. And looking through the magazines of that date I find all the better authorities agreed that the jig was up.

Again in 1941 I came back from Washington with the assurance of America's leading military writer that the Russians could not possibly last until September. The storekeeper said: "Hitler's doomed now. Old Joe will wipe him off the map."

And last summer when everyone in well-informed quarters knew that the Suez Canal was lost, the storekeeper told me in confidence that he expected the Axis to be pushed out of Africa within a year.

Altogether I would say that the storekeeper's opinion has been better than that of nearly all the experts combined. They knew the facts, the figures and the statistics. But the storekeeper had wisdom, which is a very different matter.

INTUITION

THAT IS THE assumption of the democratic system—not that the people will ever understand the facts, figures and statistics, which obviously are beyond them, but that they will understand something else which facts, figures and statistics can never contain. For lack of a better word, we call it wisdom. It is rather an intuitive sense of events, though one hesitates to mention intuition since Hitler adopted it.

All the facts were against the British in the greatest single decision of this war. All the figures showed their position to be impossible. All the statistics proved that they could not hope to succeed in resisting the enemy. But they didn't choose on facts, figures or statistics. They chose on intuition—and were right.

The choice in these larger methods always represents the inward nature, rather than the superficial reasoning and the audible talk of a people. It was not in the nature of the British to quit. In the same fashion the loud decisions of the peace will reflect the inward nature, not the superficial reasoning or the audible talk of the people here.

That is why I see no reason to expect in America a revolutionary solution of anything, for the reason that in our inward nature we are not revolutionaries, and no one seems able to whip up revolution in us. Where revolution is part of the people's nature and long the customary method of procedure, revolutions have occurred—in our time, but nowhere else.

BOLSHEVIST WITH BOMB

APPARENTLY THE Russians have recognized this fact at last. Any schoolboy who studied our history in the English-speaking countries could have told the late Mr. Trotsky that his comic Comintern could only aggravate the British and American peoples who thought of the grand theory of World Revolution as a whiskered fellow carrying an old-fashioned bomb. Probably Stalin knew that from the beginning but had to keep up the pretence of the original Lenin dream for his own political reasons. Now he thinks it opportune and safe to bury the cartoon figure of the Bolshevik with the bomb, and no one laments; least of all, I suspect, the Communists of America who were forced to turn themselves inside out, to talk nonsense without interruption, to oppose the war and then to support the war all to serve the World Revolution which stubbornly refused to occur; the reason being that there weren't enough experts in the world like those who wrote the old magazines in my cabin, and too many fellows like the old storekeeper who refused to be hustled even by Hitler.

Next time some editor asks me to go down to Washington or Ottawa to find out what is happening I shall save him a lot of money. I shall ask only for the fare to travel 25 miles up the island and I shall consult for half an hour with my old storekeeper over a bottle of pop. Then I shall return with a true appreciation of the political situation and the world's prospects. It will not only be cheaper than consulting with the distant experts over expensive cocktails, but it will have the merit of being true.

Swarming mosquitoes on Guadalcanal dig so deep they must be pulled off with tweezers. Isn't rationing dreadful!

A Challenging Example of Service

Britain In the Midst of War

LONDON. In March of this year, the British Empire air forces reached the high level of monthly bomb-sowing rate of 12,000 tons. They have wrecked more than 2,000 German war factories.

By means of cameras with electric controls and flash bombs of 50,000,000 candlepower, R.A.F. Bomber Command makes photographs of damage being done in its night raids on enemy territory.

Out of the thousands of ships conveyed by the Royal Navy, less than one out of 200 has been lost. The Royal Navy has sunk or captured more than 8,000,000 tons of enemy merchant shipping.

Over 600 Royal Navy ships are at sea at any given moment, and at least 2,200 British ships, of which 1,800 belong to the United Kingdom.

Since the fall of France, at least 1,500 convoys have been escorted by the Royal Navy through the Straits of Dover.

Some 300 factories have been set up in Britain by refugees from Nazi persecution, and they are employing about 30,000 British work people in war production.

Britain's historic role of asylum for the victims of political persecution is upheld today. It has resulted in more than 100 industries new to Great Britain being established in the country since Hitler came to power.

The number of persons of Polish, French, German, Italian, Austrian, Norwegian, Dutch, Czech and Belgian nationality registered for work in the United Kingdom is about 40,000, of whom nearly 90 per cent are working for the war effort.

Under the Liabilities (Wartime Adjustment) Act of 1941, a liabilities assistance officer has been appointed in every city in Great Britain to offer advice and assistance to "any person who is in serious financial difficulties owing to war circumstances."

This act has prevented many bankruptcies.

Over the whole field of war production output, in the United Kingdom, in 1942 was 50 per cent above that of 1941.

Construction costs to Britain's treasury of airfield and facilities for the U.S. air force alone already amount to over $500,000,000; maintenance costs are running at a rate of tens of millions a year. In addition, the British government have been paying out nearly $250,000 a week in wages to civilians directly employed by the U.S. forces.

American industry was well equipped to cope with her own huge war requirements largely because of the vast British orders which had built it up before Pearl Harbor.

During the first three years of war, it is estimated, British Empire cash purchases in the United States amounted to about $7,000,000,000; considerably more than the U.S. lend-lease deliveries to Britain during that period.

WAR—25 YEARS AGO TODAY May 27, 1918—German Western Front offensive resumed on large scale on 40-mile front between Soissons and Rheims; enemy advanced 12 miles, capturing the Chemin des Dames and crossing the River Aisne. French repulsed minor attack south of Ypres.

The average acre of American cotton produces about 200 pounds of cottonseed meal and 70 pounds of oil in addition to the lint.

DESTROYER AT TOBRUK

From New York Times

Lieutenant-Commander Austen, who commanded the destroyer Hasty when she was torpedoed and sunk with the loss of 15 men in the Mediterranean, said at Scarborough that the ship made 17 runs to Tobruk without the loss of a single life. She landed at Tobruk 29,000 soldiers and 34,000 tons of supplies and brought out 33,000 troops. The Hasty had been adopted by Scarborough. Rear-Admiral L. R. Oliphant said that a plaque to commemorate the town and district's Warship Week would eventually be placed in a new Hasty.

FOR MORE MUSIC

From London Calling

An interesting fact discovered by the BBC's Listener Research Department is that in the last two years of the war there has been a perceptible change in public taste. Most striking is the increased enthusiasm for good music. Other changes are renewed interest in religious discussions as well as a much wider audience for religious services, an immense demand for "straight" plays, even of a serious type, and great enthusiasm for dramatized personal stories of gallantry in the war.

Accident Victims Show Improvement

St. Joseph's Hospital today reported some improvement in the conditions of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thomas, Sidney, who were critically injured Tuesday night when their car crashed into a telephone pole on Glanford Avenue, Saanich.

Mrs. Thomas was reported to be resting comfortably today while Mr. Thomas, less seriously injured than his wife, was reported a little better.

No change was reported in the condition of 15-year-old David Schofield, who suffered critical head injuries when his bicycle and an army jeep collided on Yates Street, May 14. He is at Jubilee Hospital.

Although he has rallied a few times since he was rendered unconscious by a fracture at the base of the skull, it is felt his head injuries are such that under the best of circumstances the road to recovery will be long and hard.

'Cut Your Own Wood' Urges Fuel Head

A call to all able-bodied citizens of Victoria and surrounding municipalities to provide their own bush wood stockpiles unless they wish to "live" in their kitchens this coming winter was made by Frank Wilfert, production manager of Department of Munitions and Supply at Vancouver, who is in Victoria on a brief visit today.

"When you see wood stockpiles going up, particularly in the outlying municipalities, don't let it lull you into a sense of security. That wood is not for able-bodied citizens but is an emergency supply for old-age pensioners, indigents and soldiers' wives, who can't cut their own wood," Mr. Wilfert stated.

Organizations should strive to increase available supplies of bushwood by forming bush-cutting parties, going out on Sundays and holidays, he stated. "Don't depend on the mill wood; there isn't enough of it," he maintained, adding that there was no millwood surplus. "If anything should happen, such as mills shut down because of labor trouble or a mill or two burn down, we would be without wood."

Mr. Wilfert suggested that citizens get in touch with the forestry department for permission to cut bushwood in the outlying areas. He will return to Vancouver Thursday.

New Quebec School Law

QUEBEC (CP) — The Lieutenant-Governor, Sir Eugene Fluet, sanctioned into law Wednesday a bill that will make school attendance free and compulsory in Quebec province for children between six and 14 years of age. Provisions of the bill will come into force July 1 and are expected to be operative in all parts of the province by the time the next school term begins.

High School Cadets Win High Praise

Promising them a much more interesting syllabus of training next fall, Major W. R. Critchley, G.S.O. 3, Cadets, Pacific Command, expressed pleasure at the performance of the 9th Royal Regiment of Victoria High School Army Cadets when he inspected them Wednesday on High School grounds.

"The corps this year shows a definite improvement. There is more pep, more spirit, and the unit is knit much closer in a body," he said.

The cadets gave exhibitions of battalion, company, platoon, section and rifle drills, as well as displays of first aid, physical training, aircraft recognition, Bren gun, map reading, and musketry.

Major Critchley said he was looking forward to the fall when the cadets would be issued with the new Royal Canadian Army Cadet uniform, and a new series of optional courses will be offered to cadets. Much other new equipment would also be available for training cadets in the future. Accompanying Major Critchley on his tour of inspection was Staff Sergeant W. Bailey. Guest officers were R.S.M. J. R. Cleator and C.S.M. T. B. Dempster of the 3rd Battalion, Canadian Scottish. Victoria High army cadets receive instruction from Army Cadet Lieutenants W. Roper and H. Gilliland. W. Cook and regular army personnel also assist in instructing.

A.R.P. Instructors To Take Part in Test

An intensive practice for A.R.P. gas instructors will be conducted next Monday evening during the course of the district-wide air raid test in the Victoria West area.

Dr. R. M. Petrie and Ed. Savannah will supervise the practice which will be confined to a city block on Fullerton near Raynor Avenue.

A number of casualties, which will be sprayed with harmless gases which have characteristics similar to the more common war gases, will be attended by the A.R.P. instructors who recently completed a course conducted by the Victoria air raid service.

Where the accepted treatment calls for it, the casualties will be treated at the scene of the incidents or at a cleansing station which has been established nearby. Those suffering other injuries will be attended at the first aid points or the first aid post.

Ship Toy Circus To London Hospital

The toy circus made from scraps by the B.C. Toys Club and which aroused such interest when exhibited in David Spencer's window recently is being sent as a unit to the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children in London, England. To insure greater safety the component parts will be shipped in five-pound packages and mailed at intervals. Miss Eva Quayle having charge of the packing. This was announced at the meeting of the club held Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles Flight, Blenkinsop Road. Miss Meta Hodge, convener of the overseas parcels, who works in conjunction with the Queen's Nurses in London, has shipped two parcels abroad recently, one to the Ovanies Home for Bombed-out Children, Renfrewshire, Scotland, containing 142 small articles and toys, and another to a hospital in Midsex containing 64 gifts for pre-school children. The latter parcel was sent to Miss Joan Ross, a former Victoria nurse.

It was decided to ship toys and ditty bags overseas every two or three weeks to orphanages and hospitals until the list compiled by Miss Hodge is completed. Members or friends of the club who wish to send a parcel to any special town in Britain may do so. Mrs. Flight announced, by paying the postage.

This was the second business meeting of the year, the third will be held in October. Work meetings are held on the first Wednesday of the month at the Y.W.C.A. when materials are distributed and new members welcomed.

Forestry Corps W.A. To Tag Saturday

The Victoria Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Forestry Corps (Overseas) is sponsoring a tag day on Saturday under the convener'ship of Mrs. A. Restell, assisted by the following committee: Mrs. S. W. Raven, president; Mrs. P. E. Corby, Mrs. H. J. Kidd, Mrs. W. E. Akenhead, Mrs. F. Field, Mrs. C. P. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Webb. Headquarters for the tag day will be 749 Yates St., and the proceeds will aid the auxiliary's overseas fund.

Through the efforts of Miss R. Morley, cigarettes for overseas convener, 20,000 to 25,000 "smokes" are sent overseas every month to the Vancouver Island men of the Canadian Forestry Corps as well as parcels of knitted goods under the convener'ship of Mrs. William Sloan. Until the time of rationing, other presents of candies, cakes, fruit, coffee and tea were shipped regularly.

The Forestry Corps has been termed one of the most interesting corps overseas, and one of the most useful at the present time. The men are doing splendid work in Scotland and are affectionately known throughout Britain as the "Sawdust Fusiliers." Comprising loggers, millworkers, government forestry department members, and owners of timber lands, the corps went overseas in 1940 fully equipped with all the implements of their trade—to lumber and fight if need be.

Stories filter back to Canada about the work they are doing in the Scottish hills or on the shores of Loch Ness to supply Britain with wood for ships, bridges, shipyards, mine props, or to be used in repairing havoc wrought by the enemy. They work with incredible speed, a shipload of lumber a day is the average output.

It is of interest to Victorians that the crest of the Forestry Corps for Canada was designed by a Victoria boy, Lieut. E. Akenhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Akenhead, Quadra Street. The emblem uses the Douglas fir in centre surmounting the beaver and maple leaves. Sprigs of this tree and of cedar will be used by the auxiliary and helpers to "tag" on Saturday.

Clubwomen

The stamps are sold to stamp collectors and the proceeds used for the upkeep of hospital costs. She also announced that several Zeta members have been assisting at the Sally Ann Canteen but more workers are urgently needed. Annual reports were submitted for adoption by the executive and the committee conveners. The search for truth throughout the generations was traced by Miss Vera Waller in a well prepared and interesting paper, her topic being "The True." This was the second in a

Alan Ladd Stars In 'Lucky Jordan'
Dedicated to the proposition that American gangsters are: n-temen with hearts of gold, in contrast to the mobsters of Nazi Germany, Paramount's swift and furious spy drama, "Lucky Jordan," will open tomorrow at the Dominion Theatre.

"Lucky Jordan" is Alan Ladd's first starring picture, and in this thriller he shows why Paramount catapulted him to cinematic heights with rare haste. He was previously featured with Veronica Lake in "This Gun For Hire," and "The Glass Key," both smash hits.

In "Lucky Jordan," Ladd is supported by a brilliant young newcomer, blonde and gorgeous Helen Walker. Helen, late of the Broadway stage, is a sure bet for stardom herself. Others in the picture are Sheldon Leonard, Mabel Paige and Lloyd Corrigan.

'Tahiti Honey' Opens at Plaza
Comedy in the modern manner, a whole batch of swell songs, and a grand cast headed by Simone Simon and Dennis O'Keefe—these are the attractions in "Tahiti Honey," which opened today at the Plaza Theatre.

In contrast to the highly dramatic roles she has enacted in many previous films, Simone turns to singing and dancing in "Tahiti Honey." Dennis O'Keefe scores with a brilliant performance, showing convincingly why he is one of the screen's most popular stars.

CAPITOL
The role of Robert Forrest, Katharine Hepburn's husband in "Keeper of the Flame," which is currently at the Capitol Theatre, is one of the strangest on record. The central character in the picture, which stars Spencer Tracy and Miss Hepburn, has a complete wardrobe, is photographed, his voice recorded, and appears in a newsreel. But as a character in the picture he is never seen. He is supposed to have been killed before the picture started, and his death motivates the entire plot.

Adapted from the best-selling novel by I. A. R. Wylie, "Keeper of the Flame" is a tense drama dealing with a newspaperman's investigation of a murder, in which suspicion points to the dead man's wife, with whom the investigator has fallen in love.

DOMINION THEATRE
George Formby, starring with Florence Desmond in A.B.F.D.'s "No Limit" at the Dominion Theatre was once a jockey. As a youth he was apprenticed by his father to a racing stable, and during this apprenticeship he rode among others for Lord Stanley and Lord Derby.

Gene Tierney's 4th Oriental Role

"China Girl," showing at the Atlas Theatre, is Gene Tierney's fourth Oriental role and Gene will gladly accept a fifth and sixth, too, if 20th Century-Fox has them for her.

"You're being typed!" is the warning Gene hears from some corners. They are uniformly ignored, however, for the young star recalls that another actress named Myrna Loy found her fortune in the screen's Orient.

Too, to date, Gene has made nine pictures and these have ranged from costume dramas to merry, modern sophisticated comedy.

'Pardon My Sarong' Showing at Cadet

Something new in the dance is introduced by the Sarong dancing girls in Universal's newest Abbott and Costello comedy, "Pardon My Sarong," which is now playing at the Cadet Theatre.

Miss Katherine Dunham, who created and staged the numbers brings a combination of steps and movements from Tahiti, the West Indies and from Africa. There's a touch of modern Harlem thrown in for good measure. The dance is called the "Vingo Jingo."

'Great Waltz' Held Over at Oak Bay

The romantic musical picture, "The Great Waltz," featuring Luise Rainer, Fernand Gravet and Miltiza Korjus, and "Blossoms in the Dust," starring Walter Pidgeon and Greer Garson.

Walter Pidgeon In 'Sky Murder'

Nick Carter again fares forth on romance and adventure bent in the person of Walter Pidgeon in "Sky Murder," third of the popular detective series, now playing at the Rio Theatre. His quest for adventure has him walking an airplane wing, battling on a careening truck, saving a girl from a bomb, and other thrills. His quest for romance leads him into hilarious complications as the result of his flirtations. The story deals with his tracking down a band of international criminals plotting against the government, and running down its secret leader. A sterling supporting cast includes Donald Meek as the delightful "B-man," Karen Verne, new "discovery" from England, Edward Ashley, Joyce Compton and Tom Conway.

VICTORIA hockey fans will remember big Hugh Millen, star defence player and captain of last year's Navy club in the Services League. Millen played a lot of good hockey at the local ice house and now we have a report of his most recent hockey activity with a Navy team in Scotland.

Seasons apparently don't mean a thing in the hockey hotbed of the land of the thistle. Millen and his teammates have just completed a post-season tour of six games witnessed by more than 16,000 enthusiasts. The boys returned to their training centre Nlora, telling of the swell times they had at the hands of the citizenry, and of how, playing against picked Scottish teams, they won four, lost one and tied one.

The defeat came at Dunfermline where they were whipped 10 to 6 and the draw, 6 to 6, was in the last game at Kirkcaldy. Victories were registered at Paisley, Dundee, Ayr and Falkirk. Other members of the Navy club, in addition to Millen, were: Sub-Lieut. Ron Perowne of Montreal, Ab. F. Alf of Dauphin, Str. R. Smart of Calgary, Str. R. Kennedy of Windsor, La. K. Ross of Schreiber, L.S. A. J. Mulhern of Montreal, Lieut. J. P. Dewis of Cammore and AB. J. Forbes of Port Colborne.

Commenting on the baseball activities of Joe DiMaggio, former star centrefielder of the New York Yankees, since he joined the United States Army, Harry Grayson, noted sports scribe, writes as follows:

"Joe DiMaggio drew disfavor in a service game in California in which the Yankee Clipper permitted a runner to advance from first to third on a single in a fielding play hardly worthy of the best outfielder in the game and the strongest and most accurate of throwing arms.

"The greatest of the DiMaggios was represented as being apparently bored. Well, who can blame him?

"Like many other professional athletes and young men in all other lines, DiMaggio left a lucrative occupation to get under arms.

"Instead, he finds himself being exploited as an advertisement for an army publicity office.

"Some suspicion still exists in certain uninformed quarters that not a few of the more prominent athletes sought soft jobs when, in reality, they have nothing at all to say about where they are going and what they are going to do when they get there.

"Baseball playing was Joe DiMaggio's business at $40,000 a year. He can't play professionally because he must be in the fight. He didn't expect to play when he joined the army, asking no favors. He wanted to fight, but instead finds himself playing baseball again.

"Under the circumstances, who wouldn't be bored?"

Horse-racing addicts who are comparing Count Fleet to the great Man o' War, should listen to Louis Feustel, trainer of Big Red. That would be unfair, for Feustel believes Man o' War could have given from 10 to 20 pounds to any horse ever foaled and beaten him. He doubts that the turf will ever see his equal. Feustel is the opinion, however, that Count Fleet will go down in the books as the best horse of the era.

Star Hockey Players Gather at Cornwall

Lex Cook, coach of the Cornwall Hockey Club, announced. He also stated that Rhys Thompson, who played briefly last season with Toronto Maple Leafs and also with American League teams, checked into the army camp here Tuesday.

Other well-known hockey players stationed here at present include Bud Polle, Toronto Maple Leafs; Red Hamill, Chicago Black Hawks; Johnny Shewchuk, Boston Bruins; Johnny O'Flaherty, Pittsburgh Hornets, and Hub Macay, New York Rangers.

Golf Becomes More Popular Despite War Restrictions

NEW YORK (AP)—The ancient and honorable sport of golf has lost much of its ballyhoo, namely rich tournaments with their name players, but the loss has helped strengthen the game in the opinion of president George W. Blossom of the U.S.G.A.

"It is now golf essentially in its natural state—a sport almost purely for exercise, refreshment and fun, out in the open air," said Blossom today in discussing the changes that have come in the game because of the war. "Big tournaments are out but the broad appeal of playing golf remains firm—an appeal to persons of all ages and occupations."

Blossom pointed out the various problems brought on by the war have forced the closing of many courses here and in other countries, with no relief in sight, but that the sport has grown even more popular.

Catches Big Trout

Mrs. Vic Griffin, 633 Lamson Street, recently landed an eight-pound trout in Cowichan Lake. Fishing with a spinner and worm she hooked into the big one near McKenzie Point, and it took her 25 minutes to get the fish into the boat. It is claimed to be the largest trout taken in those waters in 12 years.

Big fish are nothing new to Mrs. Griffin. Couple of years ago she landed a 32-pound salmon at Cowichan Bay.

Flyers Score 10-Inning Win

Defeat Army 6-5; Move Into Second

R.C.A.F. Flyers took the honor of winning the first extra-inning game of the local baseball season by nosing out the Army 6 to 5, after 10 innings Wednesday evening. Victory boosted the airmen into undisputed possession of second place behind the undefeated V.M.D. and dropped the soldiers into fourth spot. Flyers have won three and lost two.

It was ding-dong battle with the Army holding the lead on two occasions, and the Flyers showing in front until the last of the ninth when the troops came through with the tying run with two men away.

Army went into the lead in the first inning. Ray Casey's timely single driving home a run. Flyers tied the score in the second frame when the Army catcher in his efforts to catch Forrester, attempting to steal home from third, interfered with the batter at the plate and the umpires waved the runner across the plate and sent the batter to first.

With Casey providing another hit in the clutch the Army moved ahead again with two runs in the top half of the third. Flyers bunched hits in their half of the inning and before being retired had shoved four runs across the plate. Army got one run back in the sixth when third sacker Jimmy Lowe of Flyers dropped a fly ball for the third out. With two away in the ninth the Army got the tying run. Doug Peden walked and went all the way around the sacks on Frenchy Gerrard's double to right centre.

Contrast In Games

Somebody must have sneaked a supply of the original balata (pronounced baloney by the players) balls into the major league parks under cover of darkness Wednesday night.

There were two games played in the daylight Wednesday and in one Pittsburgh Pirates punished Brooklyn Dodgers 17 to 4. The two teams made a total of 28 hits. In the other daytime game New York Giants beat Chicago Cubs 4 to 2 and there were 22 hits.

But after the sun had set, look what happened:

Cincinnati nosed out the Phillies 1 to 0 and Washington whipped St. Louis Browns by the same score. The four teams together made a total of only six hits.

Another flood-lighted affair was an 11-inning scramble at St. Louis, with Boston Braves beating Cardinals 4 to 3.

Louis Klein and Walker Cooper hit homers for two of the six hits given up by Al Javery as he counted his fourth victory against one defeat. The Braves won the game in the 11th when Eddie Joost led off with a single and ultimately came home on a single by rookie Charley Workman.

This boosted the Braves within half a game of the second place St. Louis Cardinals.

PITCHERS HIT

In the other two night games the winning pitchers were the hitting pitchers. At Cincinnati Bucky Walters and Charley Fuchs pitched magnificently and neither team scored till two were out in the last of the ninth. Walters singled in this inning, went to second on a balk and came home on a single by Eddie Miller, the sixth hit allowed by Fuchs. Walters gave only four.

At Washington the lone run of the game was counted in the sixth inning on three singles, the middle one by Dutch Leonard, who held the Browns to four one-base blows.

The day games were a striking contrast to these duels.

At Pittsburgh the Pirates scored 15 runs in the first three innings off Max Macon and Les Webber, getting five of their runs in the second and scoring nine times in the third after two were out. Vince DiMaggio hit two home runs, one with one on and the other with two.

At Chicago the Giants scored all four of their runs in the first three innings off Paul Derringer.

their half of the 10th the Flyers succeeded in pushing across the winning run with two away. With one out and runners on third and second, Flyers attempted to squeeze a runner home, but the play backfired when the man was cut off at the plate. Right fielder Henneman stroled to the rubber and smacked a double into deep centre field to score the winning run. Centre fielder Carlo of the Army misjudged the ball badly as it should have been an easy out.

Gerry Ray worked the 10 innings on the mound for the Flyers, giving up six hits, striking out a like number and walking half a dozen. Gerry Whitney went the distance for the Army, allowing 10 hits, while he fanned seven and walked a pair.

Ray Reigner, playing second base for the Army, paced the hitters with two for four.

Fight Talk Premature

MONTREAL (CP)—Army officials announced here late Wednesday that their earlier announcement that Pte. Johnny Greco would meet Bob Montgomery in New York in a nontitle fight June 25 was "premature."

"We had been told the fight was definitely on and so we made the announcement," said an army official. "Late today Mike Jacobs called from New York to say his match-maker was still negotiating with Montgomery and the fight would likely be definitely announced later."

Make Reservations Early for Holidays

At every vacation spot on Vancouver Island preparations are going ahead to welcome tired war workers, members of the services on furlough, and weary civilians in need of rest and relaxation. Within the limits of wartime restrictions, everyone is assured of a real holiday, with as many of the trimmings as it has been possible to retain.

"We're going to have a busy year," one resort owner stated recently. "So many people are looking forward to a holiday out of doors, where they can relax and forget, for a few days, at least, the stress and strain of present-day life. At the same time, they don't want to go too far away from home. That's where we come in. We can give them just the holiday they are looking for. Vancouver Island has good beaches, warm sands, soft sea breezes, splendid fishing. Lakes, stream and mountains, too. All within a radius of 200 miles of Victoria. As for accommodation, there is something for everyone, from de luxe summer hotels to clean, comfortable cottage camps.

"There is only one thing we ask," this resort owner went on more seriously, "and I think I speak for every hotel, resort and camp on Vancouver Island. We would like vacationists to write early for rates and make their reservations as soon as possible. In that way they will avoid last-minute disappointment, and we will be far better able to plan ahead for their enjoyment. If they will co-operate with us, we can assure them that everything possible will be done to give them a really grand wartime holiday."

Qualicum School Has Original Ideas

First school to have 100 per cent of the students saving for War Savings Stamps is the Qualicum Beach Boys' School, where many novel methods of raising money for this branch of the war effort have been introduced.

The 21 pupils, only five of whom are in the senior school, have saved $69 in the period between Christmas and Easter. A regular contribution is made weekly by the "Victory Skit Club," when the actor who gets the most votes for his performance is also awarded a war savings stamp as a prize. The headmaster allows the skits to be performed immediately after morning prayers and before the first lesson, several original skits having been produced in this way.

During the Fourth Victory Loan campaign, the school conducted a war savings stamp drive which was a great success, and for which the boys originated their own posters. Having attained their first objective, they have now set themselves a new and higher quota.

The headmaster at Qualicum Boys' School encourages the pupils to work for money for stamps by setting aside an hour or more when the boys may do work on the school grounds, this being in addition to the usual Saturday morning time.

The new pass books are reported to be causing considerable interest, and a competition is under way to see who can "stamp out" Hitler and his confederates first.

Happy Valley School has also been busy working for the war, having saved to date two-thirds of the year's war savings stamps objective of $100.

At a tea given on May 18, Happy Valley branch of the Junior Red Cross raised $57 for its treasury.

WOODEN GOLF BALLS

BBC Bulletin
It's almost impossible to buy rubber golf balls in most parts of Rhodesia now, so a firm in Bulawayo has started making them out of wood... and with very satisfactory results. The wooden golf balls have mesh markings just like the ordinary ones, and you can get a 130-yard drive out of them.

Historic Booklet Marks Centenary

Commemorating Victoria's celebration of its 100th birthday, the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter of the I.O.D.E., in collaboration with the Victoria section of the British Columbia Historical Association, has published a centenary brochure calculated to paint briefly the graphic history of this city since its founding.

Highly suitable to be mailed to friends or relatives in other parts of the world, as well as for enjoyable reading by citizens, the booklet will go on sale Friday night at the city's anniversary ball and will be distributed later to book stores and newstands.

In an attractive cover, bearing a picture of the old Bastion in Hudson's Bay Company days, the publication is largely pictorial and the excellence of the cuts will find general appeal.

Scenes of pioneer days, historic landmarks and personalities of local renown share space with their present-day counterparts. Reading material includes sketches of the men who have played important roles in the early life of the city and of institutions which have been major factors in the city's living.

From a technical point of view the brochure is a piece of good craftsmanship. The complete work is a creditable memento of the centenary year.

Steal Tennis Balls

Wartime rationing has added tennis balls to the list of articles now worth stealing.

L. D. Heppenstall, 2664 Blanshard, told city police Wednesday night his home had been entered during the day by thieves who forced a padlocked door open and took tennis balls and other small articles. Police believe boys were responsible for the break-in.

R.A.F. Smiles Show netted $333 for the Solumar, and a like amount for the British Save the Children Fund, Alderman W. H. Davies reported today.

Training at Sydney, N.S.

Robert "Bob" Gordon Redgrave, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Redgrave, 3349 Cook Street, is at Sydney, N.S., for his basic training in R.C.N.V.R. Born in Shaunavon, Saskatchewan, he came to Victoria when he was four years old. He was educated at Cloverdale and Mount View High Schools, then worked at Wilson and Cabell's for a short time before joining the navy. "Bob" Redgrave was an enthusiastic sportsman, winning many prizes at the annual fishing derby at Brentwood.

Meat-Cutters To Have Demonstration

A meat-cutting demonstration, to which members of the meat trade will be invited, will be held in Victoria in the near future. A. B. Food, Victoria ration officer who has just returned from a meeting of farmers and butchers in Nanaimo Tuesday, announced today.

"The dealers will be shown how to cut the carcass," Mr. Food said. "Special reference will be made to the meat ration chart at the meeting, which will be held under auspices of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board."

Chickadees conduct insect patrol all winter.

Dress Optional At City's Ball

The orchestra will play "Alice Blue Gown" as one of the popular dance selections, models will display the feminine elegance of yesterday, but dress will be optional at Victoria's centenary ball at the Empress Hotel, Friday night.

In view of the fact several representatives of the forces will appear in ordinary uniform, the committee has decided to relax all regulations regarding dress.

Seventeen dance numbers, a grand march, the costume cavalcade and old-time dancing form the program for the evening.

The selections, in order, follow: Opening fox trot, "Hey, Good Lookin'"; waltz, "Alice Blue Gown"; fox trot, "I've Heard That Song Before"; rumba, "Cul-Cul"; grand march in old-time waltz; cavalcade portraying costumes from 100 years; fox trot, "Comin' In On a Wing and a Prayer"; minuet, selected; waltz, "Grand Old Fats."

At 11 the first serving of supper will start in the dining-room, and pipers will take over the ball-room for Scottish dancing. At 11.45 the regular program will be resumed with the fox trot, "Johnny Zero." Other numbers will be as follows: Polka, selected; fox trot, "I've Got Six Pence"; waltz, "Rose of Tralee"; rumba, "The Rhythm of the Rumba"; fox trot, "In London Town At Night"; waltz, selected Strauss melodies; fox trot, "The Kerry Dance"; fox trot, "Juke Box Saturday Night"; home waltz, "Say It With Music."

The function will close with a salute to the Allied Nations.

Encores will feature such tunes as the "Lambeth Walk," "Barn Dance" and "Two Step."

Farmers Must Get Butchers' Permits

If there is a butcher with a slaughter permit in his vicinity, a farmer with only a limited number of livestock to kill may not slaughter them to obtain meat for sale unless he obtains authorization from the butcher, according to a statement made by Wartime Prices and Trade Board officials at a meeting of farmers and butchers held in Nanaimo Tuesday evening. Sydney Pickles, president of District "A" Farmers' Institute, reported today.

When asked if any farmer on Vancouver Island who slaughtered or had had livestock slaughtered for him in 1941, without reference to volume, could obtain a slaughter permit on application, one of the officials replied in the negative. Mr. Pickles said: "A Nanaimo butcher complained that he had applied for a slaughter permit two weeks ago and had been turned down." Mr. Pickles said, "The butcher said he believed this was done because he had told the board that he did no slaughtering himself but had the farmer do it for him as he had done for many years."

The charge of $5 for a carcass-stamping outfit has been withdrawn and new outfits will now be issued free to all slaughter permit holders, the W.P.T.B. representative informed the meeting.

Study Curfew Bill

First draft of the proposed city curfew-by-law was considered this afternoon by the City Council's health committee after the committee met with the finance committee to discuss expansion of the health department staff to provide for more rigid inspection of restaurants.

The original bill calls for a curfew between Oct. 1 and March 31 for all persons 16 years or under, starting at 8.30 in the evening, and during the rest of the year at 9.

Suggested penalties are $1 for the first offence after a warning has been issued to the parents, $2 for the second offence and $5 for the third and following offences.

Doubt has been expressed as to whether the bill will be ready for the consideration of the City Council next Monday.

A.R.P. Activities

Sooke—A dance, sponsored by the Sooke area A.R.P., will be held in the Sooke Community Hall, starting at 9.30 next Saturday evening. Proceeds will go to a benefit fund for David Spragg, district warden for Saseenos area, who recently lost his home by fire.

U.S. Troops Take Foothold On Vital Ridge in Attu

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States forces supported by a naval bombardment and attacking army bombers and fighters have won a foothold on a ridge south of enemy-held Chichagof Harbor after two days of hard fighting, the navy department reported today.

Despite the ferocity of the fighting on Attu, War Secretary Henry Stimson reported today, the American casualties have been relatively light, with preliminary reports indicating the army has lost 127 killed, 399 wounded and 118 missing.

From the communique and Stimson's discussion of the situation it appeared that the main enemy position is that at the head of Chichagof Harbor which is being heavily pounded by sea, air and ground troops.

However, the communique brought out, although Stimson did not develop it, the fact that the Japanese also still have a force in the area north of Lake Nicholas which lies south of Chichagof Harbor and about three miles away. The two enemy positions were obviously isolated from each other.

So far there has been no report of any heavy American action against the force in the area south of Lake Corles, which is north of Lake Nicholas.

JAP LOSSES HEAVY

Stimson said in his discussion that the army troops on Attu are making steady progress, with heavy enemy losses.

Clear weather would greatly accelerate the operations, Stimson said. For the past week the troops have pushed their way forward gradually through sleet and snow, while fog has impeded air support operations.

Stimson noted that Japanese bombers, presumably operating from northern islands of the Kurile group, had made two attacks on successive days. The first wave made an unsuccessful attack on two surface vessels. The second attack, he added, was made by 16 twin-engine bombers, which were intercepted by six United States army fighters and forced to jettison their bombs.

Five of the bombers in the latter attack were destroyed, Stimson said, and seven others which were damaged were last seen smoking and losing altitude as they disappeared in a cloud bank. The remaining four bombers fled. The U.S. Army lost two fighters, but one of the pilots was rescued.

The Navy Department previously had told of the two aerial attacks.

St. John Ambulance Brigade will hold its annual competition at the Crystal Garden, Saturday afternoon, from 1.30 till 6. Teams from all parts of the island, including men and women, boys and girls, will compete in the various tests and the public will be welcomed.

Born in Victoria 22 years ago, Sgt. Pilot Monaghan was educated at St. Louis College. He was prominent in sports, being a member of the Blue Devils rugby team and a clever basketball player.

Mennonites to Cut Wood On City Land

J. H. Unicorn, district fuel officer, told the City Council fuel committee Wednesday afternoon, 35 Mennonite forest workmen would be made available for wood cutting on the city watershed.

The Water Board will be asked to consider the offer at the request of the fuel committee.

Meanwhile, E. G. Snowden, city welfare officer, who has charge of emergency wood orders, reported he was confronted with a bottleneck of 200 orders from persons with low stocks. It is reported a large quantity of wood destined for Victoria had been diverted to Saanich and Duncan by government fuel officers.

A power saw will be secured to cut up old timbers at the Garbally Road yard, where bush wood from Goldstream district is being stored by the city.

Italian Collapse Rumors Featured In London Papers

LONDON (CP)—Front pages of London newspapers carried headlines today pointing up rumors of Italian collapse, but these rumors had little support in known facts.

Propagandists of the Rome radio were heard declining Prime Minister Churchill's invitation for Italy to quit the war.

The London Daily Telegraph carried a headline, "Big Strikes in Italy's Arms Factories," over a story which declared Italy was "on the verge of invasion panic."

The reports were based on Wednesday's order to striking Italian workers to return to their jobs.

Financial circles buzzed with stories that sensational developments were imminent in Italy. The same quarters a week ago were reporting that Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt had delivered an ultimatum to Premier Mussolini to quit Italy, and that this ultimatum expired May 17.

In broadcasts beamed abroad, but held back from its own people, the Rome radio declared today "public opinion in Italy is not easily intimidated." Wednesday, the tune was "Churchill is going too fast."

The broadcasts were recorded here by the Ministry of Information and Reuters news agency.

TOLD BY BBC

London listeners were unable to hear any broadcast that indicated the Italian people had been let in on stories of the Churchill-Roosevelt press conference, at which the Prime Minister extended the invitation to the Italian people to get out of the war, and throw themselves on the mercy of the United Nations.

Italians who listen to Allied broadcasts behind closed doors, however, had ample opportunity to weigh Mr. Churchill's words against the steadily-growing strength of the Allied air assault on the peninsula's outer islands.

The news flowed to them from the BBC, which carried both Mr. Churchill's statements and plain intimations of what air war will do to the Axis. The Algiers radio also continued to beam aerial war threats at the Italian people.

Seeks Accommodation For Army Cadets

Mrs. W. E. Rayfuse of the National Housing Registry said today she is planning to use women volunteers, headed by Mrs. Walter Laing, to sort the compulsory housing registration return forms.

Canning Rations Now Being Mailed

Sugar ration coupons for canning of fruits now are being mailed to Victoria housewives at the rate of several thousand a day but women in charge feel it will be a couple of weeks before all coupons have been received by Victoria women.

The clerical work of adjusting the sugar rationing and mailing the coupons is being done at the City Hall council chambers. Women are working both in the morning and afternoon.

Although several thousand housewives have already received their extra ration coupons for canning, the coupons do not become valid until June 1. Each coupon has a value of 5 pounds, the minimum unit considered for canning.

The ration is about 10 pounds per person.

The first two coupons become valid in June, while the third, fourth and fifth coupons will not be valid until July, August and September, respectively.

Women in charge of the sugar rationing for fruit today took issue with reported statements of E. W. Rodomar, assistant deputy administrator of consumer rationing for the Price Board, who Wednesday said in Ottawa Canadian housewives had exaggerated their 1943 requirements.

They reported demands of Victoria housewives had appeared quite normal, some women having gone to great pains to calculate canning sugar needs to a fraction of a pound. On the whole, the women issuing the sugar ration coupons thought the demands were normal.

Pepler to Represent B.C. in Police Cases

Col. Eric Pepler, K.C., Deputy Attorney-General, will appear before the Supreme Court of Canada June 15 to represent the Crown in the application of Stuart Henderson for leave to appeal decisions of the Court of Appeal against John Graham Simpson, Leonard J. Simmons, George H. Hall and J. A. Walsh, convicted and sentenced here on charges of conspiring to defraud the provincial government in police stores dealings.

Col. Pepler will also represent the province in the reference to the Supreme Court on the jurisdictional questions involving trial of U.S. servicemen by their own military tribunals.

Mr. Henderson plans to bring the police stores case before the court on a point of law, contending the decision of the Court of Appeal of B.C. differs from that of the Court of Appeal of Saskatchewan on a similar point. Establishment of that position in his application for leave to appeal would bring him before the highest tribunal in Canada to argue the question.

Metochosin Farmers Protest Gas Ruling

S. C. Blake, president of Metochosin Farmers' Institute, says farmers of the Metochosin district plan to call a meeting to discuss the order of the oil controller in Vancouver that B gas ration books be turned in.

Farmers affected have appealed to the oil controller and when a reply has been received a general meeting will be called to discuss further steps.

Said Mr. Blake: "We need 100 gallons of gas if we are to carry on our business of selling produce in city stores and at the market. If we cannot take our products to market, then we shall be forced out of business."

New Companies

Fourteen new B.C. concerns were listed during the week by the registrar of companies.

Incorporations included the following companies, all with head offices in Vancouver: Victory Coal Co. Ltd., capitalization $25,000; Hamilton, Harvey and Son Ltd., $75,000; Honey Cream Do-Nuts Ltd., $10,000; Cariboo Garage Ltd., $25,000; Cariboo Greyhound Lines Ltd., $100,000; River Towing Co. Ltd., $10,000; Cosulich and Burt Ltd., $30,000; Cliff Investments Ltd., $50,000; Somerset Ltd., $10,000; False Creek Industries Ltd., $50,000; Waywest Estates Ltd., $10,000; Dawson Tailors Ltd., $10,000; Wonder Baker Ltd., $10,000; and Western Plastics Ltd., 100 shares, no par value.

which are being issued to house-holders this week.

"We are hoping to get increased accommodation from these returns," said Mrs. Rayfuse, "especially for families with one or two children, and for Gordon Head cadets."

The latter creates a problem because they seek furnished places for their wives, where they can come in once or twice a week as duty allows.

Mayor Andrew McGavin will speak on housing problems over C.V.I. Saturday at 6.15 p.m.

Oak Bay Council Hears A.R.P. Report

Provision for compensation of A.R.P. workers contained in an Order in Council was reported upon to the Oak Bay Municipal Council Wednesday by Engineer A. S. Musgrave.

Mr. Musgrave reported that the order provided for payment of compensation in the event of injury to others, or damage to property, only when the A.R.P. worker was carrying out duties under the authority of an A.R.P. committee, and was not guilty of gross negligence.

Steps are being taken by the municipality of Saanich to alleviate the nuisance caused by sewage discharge from the Gordon Head officers' training centre into Bowker Creek, it was reported to the council, who subsequently discussed the matter in committee. The report, made by W. W. Shorrock, Saanich sanitary inspector, was the outcome of a complaint made by the Oak Bay Council.

Councillors F. Turley, W. Falck and P. A. Moir were appointed as a committee to recommend appointment of a relief officer.

Ask Sewer Installation

The City Council works committee, meeting today, decided to recommend to the council that sewers be put in on Market Street easterly from Ross before the street, which has recently been graded, be resurfaced.

Estimated cost of the storm sewer, which will be 310 feet long, is $520, while the sanitary sewer, 325 feet long, will cost $567.

The committee will also recommend that before filling in a ditch on the west side of Williams, a crushed rock sidewalk be constructed between Esquimalt Road and Wilson, at an estimated cost of $485.

To Quit A.F. of L.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The International Association of Machinists, with a reputed membership of more than 500,000, announced today it is quitting the American Federation of Labor as of May 31, because of a long-standing jurisdictional dispute.
The A.F.L. thus lost almost the same numerical strength it stands to gain by the prospective readmittance of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

The jurisdictional fight involves chiefly William L. Hutcheson's "Carpenters" Union, which the machinists contend has been "muscling in" on its field, with the sanction of the A.F.L. executive council.

Congregation Honors Rev. Hugh McLeod

Cordial relations existing between ministers and congregations of the various religious denominations in the city of Victoria, were emphasized in addresses given at a reception in the lecture hall of First United Church, Wednesday evening, in honor of Rev. Hugh A. McLeod, M.A., B.D., D.D., minister, upon whom was conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Queen's University.

Very Rev. S. H. Elliott, D.D., Dean of Columbia and vice-president of the Victoria Ministerial Association, spoke of the "happiness of our associations with all denominations" and Dr. A. E. Whitehouse, minister of Metropolitan Church and Dr. W. G. Wilson, former pastor of First United, tendered congratulations to Dr. McLeod.

A graduate of Queen's University and Knox Theological College, Toronto, Dr. McLeod went to his first pastorate in Luseland, Saskatchewan, in 1921. Since that time he has held ministerial posts in Woolsley, Saskatoon, Medicine Hat and Edmonton, coming to First United Church, Victoria, in 1938.

"Your exemplary life and that of Mrs. McLeod have ever been before us. You have supported all worthy causes within the wider community and have borne aloft the unsullied reputation of Christian citizenship," an illuminated address presented to Dr. McLeod by Rev. Thomas Menzies, clerk of session, on behalf of the congregation, read. Mr. Menzies spoke of the former's "outstanding abilities as a preacher."

Rev. F. W. Anderson, visiting pastor of the church, presided and greetings were given by R. D. Matthews, past president of the Queen's University Alumni Association; H. M. Henniquin, who read felicitations on behalf of Westminster United Church, Saskatoon, and from Robertson United in Edmonton.

Dr. McLeod thanked the gathering for their greetings. Mrs. O. A. Butters presented flowers to Miss Pearl Willows, B.A., who was designated deaconess by the United Church Conference of B.C., in session at Vancouver, recently. George H. Peaker sang. The social hour was convened by Mrs. W. S. Dawson and members of the Women's Auxiliary.

Montreal Judge Annuls Marriage

MONTREAL (CP)—Mr. Justice Alfred Forest, in Superior Court here Wednesday, annulled a "mixed" marriage performed in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, between a Roman Catholic and a Jew.
Renee Laure Jeanne Serveau of France said that after her marriage to Edward Lukas Salmon, now a member of the Canadian armed forces, she found he was of the Jewish faith.

Mr. Justice Forest said the marriage was illegal. He said deception as to the nationality or religion of one of the marriage parties was a good ground for annulling a marriage. He added that the Roman Catholic Church condemns marriages between members of that church and Jews and said Catholic canon law declares that all unions between Catholics and nonbaptized persons before a public officer are "radically null."

VICTORIA, OAK BAY, SAANICH, ESQUIMALT

With Regard to Registration of HOUSING ACCOMMODATION

In an early mail you will receive a combined letter and form from the Real Property Administrator of The Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

The Form is to be filled out and mailed within five days of its delivery to you.

WAR INDUSTRY

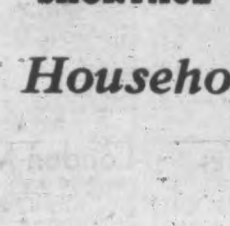

MANS

SHORTAGE

Householders in Victoria area will receive by mail a Housing Survey form. All householders are required to fill in the form, giving the necessary information. These forms are to be completed and mailed within five days of delivery.

There is a serious housing shortage here and elsewhere in Canada. Many materials used in building are urgently needed for war industry, and there is no prospect of any extensive new home construction for some time. This means that all existing living space should be used to the very limit.

Surveys are being made to determine the degree of existing overcrowding—to find accurately what housing is available, and to decide upon the steps necessary to remedy the situation.

Housing accommodation data, reported by means of the above-mentioned forms, will be tabulated. Information about suitable quarters will be made available to those in need of it.

Every effort will be made to bring congenial householders and tenants together.

When you receive your Housing Survey form in the mail read it carefully. Fill in all the information that is required. Mail it before closing date—June 2.

NO STAMP OR ENVELOPE IS NECESSARY

This registration is required under an Order issued by The Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

While it is not compulsory for you to rent any space in your home, it is compulsory for you to complete the Housing Survey form delivered to your premises, and to mail it in accordance with the printed instructions.

THE WARTIME PRICES AND TRADE BOARD

Dorothy Dix:

Dear Dorothy Dix: After 12 years of marriage my husband has suddenly become tired of it all and wants to throw it up. During our married life we have had violent quarrels and he says that I have killed his love for me by my intense temper, forgetting that he has a temper equally as bad as mine.

I endeavored to get him to let us make up, but he flatly refused. For nearly nine of the 12 years we have been married I have worked, part of the time making more than he did, and we bought a lovely home and furniture which I helped pay for. Now he demands that I give him in cash half of the community property, but I feel that I would be foolish to do this as he would only throw the money away on some girl. He insists that he is going in the army and wants his financial matters settled before he goes.

My question is this: Should I get the divorce only to make it convenient for him, or should I let the matter drag along?

PATSY.

Answer: Your question is one for the lawyers to answer, but inasmuch as your husband has at least earned half of whatever property you have I don't see why he is not entitled to his fair share of it, no matter if he is going to waste it on wine, women and song.

Evidently you two, between you, have killed love and wrecked your marriage by your violent tempers. What a price to pay.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a married girl, working in an office with two other girls. My employer, a married man, often asks me to lunch and to let him take me home in his car. Should I accept his invitations?

PERPLEXED.

Answer: Not unless you are looking for trouble. Buy your own sandwich and hop a bus. It is safer.

Cats Have Eyes of Various Colors

There is a saying that a Siamese cat "is born white, but turns black if it lives long enough."

The saying is only partly true. Siamese cats are born white and tend to become darker as they grow older, but they do not "turn black."

The white Siamese kitten has a cry which differs from the ordinary "meow." This odd cry is something like "cree," and when Siamese kittens cry they are said to be "creeing."

Siamese cats of pure breed have blue eyes. Often they have cream-colored hair over most of the body, along with dark brownish color about the face, ears, tail and lower legs.

The country formerly known as Siam, but now called Thailand, is looked upon as the first home of Siamese cats. Some of these cats were transported to Europe, and were bred for sale and for display at "shows." A Siamese prince visited England several years ago, and after being there for a while, he said, "I have seen more Siamese cats in London than I ever saw in Siam!"

Tests seem to have proved that temperature helps to change the coloring of Siamese cats. They tend to become darker in cold climates than in regions where the weather is warm the year around.

One strain of Siamese cats has eyes which are yellow instead of blue. Adults of this strain are entirely of chocolate brown color.

BEAUTIES of the CAT WORLD

The most common eye color of cats is green, but many kinds have eyes with other colors. Most breeds of Persian cats have orange as the "standard" color of the eyes. One kind of Persian cat not only has orange eyes, but also orange-colored fur.

Many white Persian cats are an exception to the rule, having blue instead of orange eyes. Blue-eyed cats of any breed are likely to be deaf if their coats are entirely white.

The so-called "chinchilla cat" has blue-green eyes as a standard, and its fur is a silvery grey, very close to white. Often it is called "the silver cat."

Several kinds of cats are known as "tabbies." We have the blue tabby, the brown tabby, the striped tabby and the silver tabby. Sometimes the name "tabby" is used as a general name for house cats.

The striped tabby also is called the "tiger cat." It is grey with black stripes, and a kind of "letter M" is to be found on its forehead.

New Move to Save Historical Papers

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—In their zeal to comply with requests for salvage of all types, Canadians are throwing away valuable historical papers, semi-official documents and rare copies of newspapers, it was disclosed at the annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Society here.

In order to check this by arousing the interest of local historical societies and to bring it to the attention of the public through the press, a committee was named, headed by Major Gustave Langford of Ottawa.

Officers chosen include: President, Dr. George W. Brown, Toronto; vice-president, Prof. W. N. Sage, Vancouver.

Members of the council include Prof. M. H. Long, Edmonton.
